You can complete this form online today at www.aec.gov.au

AEC

Australian Electoral Commission

You can use this form to:

- enrol to vote
- change your residential or postal address, and/or
- change your name

on the electoral roll for federal, state and local government elections in New South Wales.

Who can enrol and vote?

It is compulsory for all eligible Australian citizens 18 years and over to enrol to vote. You are eligible to enrol and vote if you:

- are an Australian citizen, or a British subject who was enrolled on 25 January 1984
- are 18 years or older, and
- have lived at your address for at least one month.

You can enrol at 16 years but cannot vote until you are 18.

Within three weeks of receiving your enrolment form the AEC will confirm your enrolment. We may seek further information from you and confirm your enrolment using any of the contact details you provide.

Special enrolment

Special category enrolment forms are available if you:

- are temporarily overseas
- cannot attend a polling place on election day
- believe that having your address shown on a publicly available roll may endanger your safety or that of your family
- have no fixed address
- are in prison
- are physically incapable of signing your name
- are working in Antarctica.

Who has access to your enrolment information?

The Commonwealth of Australia

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) is authorised under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (CEA) to collect and verify the information you have been asked to complete on this form. The information provided will assist the AEC to maintain electoral rolls.

The AEC may disclose electoral information to persons or organisations in accordance with the CEA. This may include:

- access to the publicly available electoral roll (containing names and addresses) which may be inspected at electoral offices
- state and territory electoral authorities
- Members of Parliament, Senators, registered political parties, and candidates for the House of Representatives
- approved medical research and public health screening programs
- any agencies, persons or organisations prescribed in the Electoral and Referendum Regulation 2016.

For more information on privacy, visit www.aec.gov.au/privacy

The State of New South Wales

The information on this form is collected by the AEC for the New South Wales Electoral Commission (NSWEC) to maintain the integrity, completeness and accuracy of both the NSW and Commonwealth electoral rolls and registers.

It will be used by the NSWEC to undertake its functions, including under the Electoral Act 2017 to enrol you to vote and/or update your details. The inclusion of your mobile number, telephone number and email addresses on this form is voluntary but, if provided, the NSWEC may use them to contact you about election events relevant to you or your enrolment.

The NSWEC is also authorised or required under the Electoral Act and other legislation, to disclose your enrolment information (full name, address, date of birth and gender) to other persons or bodies from time to time, such as members of state parliament, registered political parties, candidates for state and local government elections, government agencies, organisations undertaking approved medical research and health screening programs, and individuals who inspect in person a copy of a NSW or local government residential roll (which does not contain date of birth details).

You may update your enrolment and contact details online. The NSWEC's website contains additional details about how to do this and how your enrolment information is managed.
